1. Your Wisdom made the heavens and the Earth, o Lord; you
| F G | Am7 | F G |
Formed the land, then set the lights; and like your love the sun will rule the day, and stars will grace the night.

| F G | Am7 Am7/^G | F G | Am7 |
2. You have chosen Jacob for your-self, o Lord; so tenderly you spoke his name; then
| F G | Am7 G6 FM7 = | Dm7 | C G/^C | C G/^C | |
called a holy nation, Is - ra - el, to make them yours, you came.

(Am) | F G | Am7 Am7/^G | F G | Am7 |
3. You led us out of Egypt with a guiding hand. You raised your arm to set us free. And
| F G | Am7 G6 FM7 = | Dm7 | C G/^C | C G/^C | |
like a tender vine you planted us to grow unto the sea.

(Am) | F G | Am7 Am7/^G | F G | Am7 |
4. The nations fashioned silver idols, golden Gods; but none have hearing, speech or sight. Their

5. O house of Israel, now come to bless the Lord, o house of Aaron, bless His name. O
| F G | Am7 G6 FM7 = | Dm7 | C G/^C | C G/^C | |
bless the Lord, all you who honor Him, and praise his holy name.
